

Bodmin Joint St. Piran Committee

Exhibition of Children's Paintings by local junior & infant schools

Exhibition in the Shire Hall
Open to the public & on display
26 February 2013 to 15 March 2013

This exhibition showcases junior and infant school artwork as part of a children's painting competition which this year takes the theme of 'The International Celtic Congress' which Bodmin is proud to host from 1 to 5 April 2013.

This painting competition has been organised by the Bodmin Joint St. Piran Committee as a further way to get local children thinking about their Patron Saint and as a way to engender cultural distinctiveness and identity / belonging to this great County, in which they live, learn and play.

