

BODMIN ST PIRAN'S DAY

BODMIN ST PIRAN'S DAY COMMITTEE

Invite the people of Bodmin to celebrate St Piran's Day with them and the children on Thursday 5th March 2015.

The celebrations will commence with a parade down through the town to the Mount Folly where invited dignitaries will address the gathered crowd, which will be followed by the children singing and dancing. The children will then be escorted to St Petroc's Church where they will present their own contributions to mark St Piran's Day and celebrate by eating a good old Cornish Pasty

Parade will commence at 11.am from the Library on Lower Bore Street.

All are welcome
